

GENERAL MANAGER JEAN NIEL ASIA

About JEAN NIEL.

House of excellence since 1779, Jean Niel embodies a century-old perfumery expertise. Present on the activities of Perfumery, Flavors and Raw Materials, the company has cultivated this wealth to offer to its customers an infinite choice of sublimated aromatic creations. This French craftsman accompanies the challenges and desires of his partners by reinventing the tailor-made service and the sense of personalised commercial relationship. As part of their growth, the Jean Niel flavors division is looking for a General Manager.

Business leader, Team oriented...

JOB SUMMARY:

A growing medium size flavors and fragrances family-owned company is looking for a General Manager to operate the Bangkok subsidiary. Reporting to headquarters' main director, the General Manager will be responsible for leading the entire Bangkok factory.

The General Manager coordinates all the other functions on the site in collaboration with the other Heads of HQ to ensure that the performance of the site meets the customers' expectations. The plant manager guarantees the performance of the production according to the group's quality standards.

This position is based in Bangkok

ESSENTIAL DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Accountable for the follow up of all economic and financial indicators of the site in accordance with the validated budget given by the HQ
- Lead in cooperation of the purchase department of HQ to develop the local purchase of raw materials to optimise costs and delivery time
- Main contact with local authorities and local consultants
- Provide senior level technical assistance to major customers and Implement Innovation and Development with the top management to build strong, reliable customer relationships and identify new business opportunities
- Accountable for the collaboration and coordination with HQ in order to ensure best alignment of priorities and decisions, sharing of best practices, and optimal international coordination

SKILLS & ABILITIES:

- 10 to 15 years of industrial experiences
- Mastery of business and financial management
- Advanced leadership skills and ability to successfully manage a team
- Strong presentation and communication skills
- Thai language as a "plus"